(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

Holy Isle is situated in the centre of Lamlash Bay, which is thus defended from the full force of the rough weather of the open sea. It is five miles in circumference, and derives its name from having at one time been the residence of St. Molios, who was born 567 A.D. This saint's dwelling, a mere cave in the cliff side, is pointed out about a mile south of the landing-place.
